MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: HAMILTON JORDAN H.J.
SUBJECT: COMMISSIONER ON AGING

On July 5th Secretary Califano sent you a memorandum (Tab A) recommending you appoint Bertram Beck to the position of Commissioner on Aging. Although Mr. Beck's qualifications for the position seem excellent, we requested that the Secretary define for you how Mr. Beck as Commissioner on Aging would interact with your recent appointment of Nelson Cruikshank as Chairperson of the Federal Council on Aging and your Counselor on Aging. The Secretary has responded in the memorandum at Tab B. I believe the Secretary has made his case and this information gives you a sufficient basis on which to make your decision.

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20201

JUL 26 1977

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

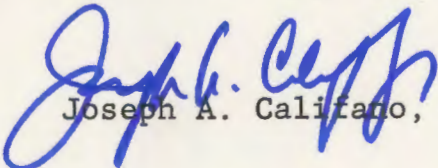

Upon receiving my July fifth recommendation for the appointment of Bertram Beck as Commissioner on Aging, you requested a more detailed explanation of the relationship between the Commissioner and Nelson Cruikshank, as Chairperson of the Federal Council on Aging and the Presidential Counselor on Aging.

As Commissioner, Mr. Beck would oversee the operations of the $423.5 million program of the Administration on Aging. It is the principal Federal agency for addressing the needs of older Americans and coordinating Federal policies affecting them.

As Chairperson of the Federal Council, Mr. Cruikshank will preside over a group of fifteen citizens charged with giving independent advice regarding Federal policies and programs for the elderly. Such advice will be directed to the President, the Secretary of HEW, the Commissioner on Aging, and the Congress. By making Mr. Cruikshank the Presidential Counselor on Aging, as well as Chairperson of the Federal Council, you have fulfilled a campaign commitment to establish such a position and avoided unnecessary duplication.

In sum, Mr. Beck is an energetic and imaginative administrator who has directed the country's largest settlement house, and Mr. Cruikshank is a wise and experienced (age: 75) counselor who will bring national visibility to the needs of the elderly. In reviewing current policies and programs and in preparing new initiatives, the two men will have to work together closely, but the difference in their roles as administrator and advisor will govern their relationship.

With this further explanation, I hope that you will be prepared to approve my earlier recommendation that you nominate Mr. Beck as Commissioner on Aging.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

I recommend that you appoint Mr. Bertram M. Beck to the position of Commissioner on Aging. Mr. Beck is currently the Executive Director of the Henry Street Settlement Urban Life Center in New York City. His appointment as Commissioner is subject to Senate confirmation.

As Commissioner on Aging, Mr. Beck would administer the principal Federal agency for addressing the needs of older Americans and coordinating Federal programs and policies which affect the elderly. The overall budget of the Administration on Aging now totals approximately $423.5 million, the largest shares of which go to State and community programs on aging and the Nutrition Program for the Elderly.

In considering candidates for Commissioner on Aging, we sought a person who could effectively manage the programs and staff of the Administration while working to achieve greater coordination and coherence. We also wanted someone who would creatively confront the issues posed by the growing number and percentage of older people within our population. And very importantly, we looked for a person who has knowledge of and concern for the disproportionate number of older Americans who are poor or otherwise needy.

Mr. Beck, who was initially trained as a social worker at the University of Chicago, has been the Executive Director of Henry Street since 1967. It is one of the oldest, largest, and best run settlement houses in the country, and has well-served an ethnically and racially mixed clientele. While Mr. Beck is not particularly known for his work on problems of the aging, he is a leading figure in the field of social welfare, and he is known as an imaginative and politically astute organizer and advocate.

During the late 1960's, Mr. Beck was Executive Director of Mobilization for Youth, Inc., and he has through much of his career maintained part-time affiliations with schools of social work and social research. He has chaired a number of community service organizations, especially related to child and family welfare, and is Chairman of Governor Carey's Task Force on Human Services.

The President
Page Two

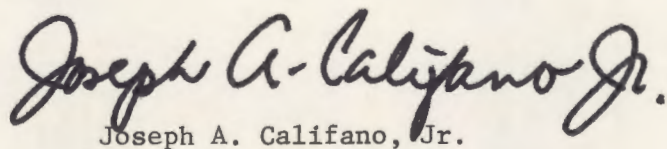

I believe that Mr. Beck will bring freshness, vigor, and breadth of vision to the Commission which will win him wide acceptance. He was enthusiastically recommended to us by such people as Mitchell Sviridoff, Vice President for National Affairs of The Ford Foundation, and Franklin Thomas, former President of the Bedford-Stuyvesant Restoration Corporation. He is also acceptable to Nelson Cruikshank, with whom he will need to work closely. The two of them will make a first rate team for the Administration.

Within the Congress, Mr. Beck is supported by Senator Kennedy, the New York Senator, and others on the Human Resources Committee. He is not well-known by other members of the Congress with whom we checked. Senator Church preferred Mr. Oriol, but considers Mr. Beck a satisfactory choice.

The highlights of Mr. Beck's career are:

- Executive Director, Henry Street Settlement Urban Life Center, 1967 to present.
- Executive Director, Mobilization for Youth, Inc., 1965-1969.
- Executive Director, Academy of Certified Social Workers, 1961-1965.
- Associate Executive Director, National Association of Social Workers, 1955-1965.
- Chairman, Vice President, and member, Board of Directors, Citizens' Committee for Children, 1966-1976.
- Member, Board of Directors, National Federation of Settlements and Neighborhood Centers, 1971-1976.
- Chairman, Board of Directors, Lower East Side Family Union, 1972 to present.
- Chairman, Governor Carey's Task Force on Human Services, 1975 to present.

A more detailed resume is attached.

FROM: RAY MARSHALL Rm.

SUBJECT: APPOINTMENT TO THE OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH REVIEW COMMISSION

I am writing to recommend that Bert Cottine be appointed to fill the vacancy on the Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission. He is currently the Special Assistant for Policy to Eula Bingham, the Assistant Secretary for Occupational Safety and Health. During the past six months I have worked closely with him in reviewing and redirecting OSHA. He is an aggressive and eloquent advocate for better occupational safety and health, and I have great respect for his capabilities.

Prior to working for the Department of Labor, he was with Ralph Nader's Occupational Health Research Group and was involved extensively in the proceedings of the Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission. He is considered by professionals in and out of government as a person with exceptional knowledge of both the public policy and legal aspects of the Occupational Safety and Health Act.

He has been strongly endorsed by Eula Bingham, Tim Cleary, your designee as Chairman of the Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission, Tom Donahue and George Taylor of the AFL-CIO. Since he is identified as pro-worker and has a background as a public interest lawyer, he will not receive the same degree of support from the business community. However, no serious opposition is expected and he is sensitive to the legitimate concerns of business. He has worked closely with the business community in our common sense priorities approach to OSHA. We have also consulted with Senators Williams and Javits and Congressman Gaydos on the appointment.

I would be pleased to discuss this appointment with you or members of your staff on request.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Ray Marshall RM.

SUBJ: Appointment to the National Labor Relations Board

I am writing to recommend that John C. Truesdale be designated to fill the vacancy on the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) created by the resignation of Peter D. Walther. Mr. Truesdale has spent most of his working life associated with the Board and has since 1972 served as its executive secretary. His detailed knowledge of the Board's operations would serve him well in this position and I have confidence he would make an excellent addition to the Board. We have discussed the appointment with representatives of the AFL-CIO and the UAW, the Business Roundtable, Congressmen Thompson, Perkins, and Quie and Senators Williams and Javits. Mr. Truesdale's nomination would receive wide support from these groups. A copy of his resume is attached.

I had earlier recommended to you that Professor Daniel H. Pollitt of the University of North Carolina be nominated to fill this vacancy. Although Mr. Pollitt would also have made a fine Board member his nomination would have been extremely controversial. The management community would have been almost unanimously against the appointment and substantial opposition would have been generated in the Congress. Rather than expend our political energies on such a controversial nomination when so many other important labor-related matters such as minimum wage and labor law reform are pending before Congress, I have decided to withdraw this recommendation. Mr. Pollitt has concurred in this action. Because of the general support for Mr. Truesdale described above, his nomination is not likely to encounter significant opposition.

I would be pleased to discuss this recommendation with you or members of your staff on request.

MEMORANDUM FOR: PRESIDENT CARTER
FROM: HAMILTON JORDAN HJ.
SUBJECT: FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

As you are aware, the legislation on the new Department of Energy now calls for a five member regulatory board rather than three member.

Accordingly, we need to make one more nomination to the Federal Power Commission so that the individual will be in place when the new legislation takes effect and can be transferred to the regulatory board without delay. You have already approved Charles Curtis and Georgiana Sheldon. Our candidate is Matthew Holden, Jr., a black, who is presently serving as a Public Service Commissioner for the State of Wisconsin.

Jim Schlesinger is strongly in favor of Holden and we have favorable comments from a number of sources. A bio and the comments are attached.

I recommend you approve our proceeding with Matthew Holden for membership on the Federal Power Commission.

Commissioner, Public Service Commission of Wisconsin

Frank Press: I would give very high marks to Holden. Among state utility and public service commission members, he is considered one of the very best; his knowledge of the state situation would make him an excellent choice.

Senator Gaylord Nelson: Has a high regard for Holden's dedication and his views on energy regulation issues which he believes are close to those of the administration. As a member, Nelson would be strongly positive about Holden's qualifications.

Senator William Proxmire: Believes Holden has a good reputation, approves of his views, and would be pleased to see him as a member of the board.

Charles Cicchetti (current Chairman of Wisconsin Public Service Commission): Strongly recommends Holden. He is bright, energetic, and supportive of the Administration's general slant on energy. He noted Holden will not face any problems in complying with the "anti-revolving door" provisions in the Energy Department legislation.

Norman Clapp (Chairman, Wisconsin Commission before Cicchetti, now Washington attorney): Agrees with Cicchetti's comments. Would have no reservations about Holden.

Senator Henry Jackson: Jackson has a favorable impression of Holden and has recommended him to Schlesinger, among others.

Jim Flug (Director of Energy Action, public interest group): Knows Holden only by reputation, but that reputation is very good.

Alfred Kahn (Chairman, CAB): Knows him slightly but believes him competent and well suited to be a member of the Board.

BRIEFING MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Abdul Wahid Karim (Phonetic: Kah-reem) - Appointed Ambassador of the Republic of Afghanistan and UN Representative

Ambassador Karim is married and has three children. He was born in Kabul 50 years ago. He graduated from Kabul University, studied English at the Oxford Tutorial Center, and political science at the Sorbonne. He speaks excellent English and fluent French. He is a 27-year veteran of the foreign service and was most recently the Afghan Ambassador in Cairo.

Significant Programs or Issues

Relations between Afghanistan and the U.S. are excellent. Our AID program is currently running at $20 million a year and is concentrated in rural areas. In addition there are 65 Peace Corps Volunteers.

The Daoud regime came to power in 1973 and has recently abolished martial law and introduced a new Western style Constitution which contains extensive human rights provisions. It is too early to tell how these rights will be implemented.

The only bilateral problem involves opium poppy cultivation which has increased in recent years. Poppies are being grown more or less openly in many parts of the country and the Daoud regime has not taken any steps to reduce opium cultivation, though it is illegal. While at present none of this is known to reach the U.S., the size of the Afghan crop and its potential for export to North America are of concern.

Talking Points

- I understand you also represent Afghanistan in the UN and at the Law of the Sea Conference. We attach great importance to Law of the Sea matters and hope that an agreement can be reached soon.
- I was pleased to hear about your new Constitution and hope you will be successful in implementing its provisions.
- I am troubled by reports that the cultivation of opium poppies in Afghanistan has increased. We are willing to cooperate with you to help control opium cultivation and trafficking.
- (If raised) We are looking into your PL 480 request and hope to have an answer for you soon.

BRIEFING MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Putteho Muketo Ngonda (Phonetic: enGONdah) - Appointed Ambassador of the Republic of Zambia

Ambassador Ngonda, 40, was most recently Permanent Secretary in the Zambian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. A career diplomat, he served at the UN and in Washington from 1964-68 and later served as Ambassador to Ethiopia and the United Kingdom. He is married and has three sons.

Significant Programs or Issues: Suffering the effects of the prolonged Rhodesian crisis, Zambia is concerned that US-supported efforts to achieve negotiated settlements in Rhodesia and Namibia are proceeding too slowly.

Talking Points:

- President Kaunda has my admiration and support. I regret that he was unable to visit the United States this spring.
- Compromise on all sides will be necessary to bring majority rule to Zimbabwe. We hope we can continue to count on Zambian support as we work to achieve a fair settlement which all the parties will be able to accept.
- Significant progress has been made toward a settlement of the Namibian problem, but much remains to be done.
- The Administration will work steadfastly on behalf of human rights in South Africa and the transformation of South African society towards full political participation for all its people.

BRIEFING MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Peter M. Towe

Appointed Ambassador of Canada

Ambassador Towe, 54, began his career as a Canadian Foreign Service Officer in 1947, after serving in the Royal Canadian Air Force 1942-45 and earning an M.A. degree in Economics from Queen's University in Toronto in 1947. He has served in Bonn, Paris, Ottawa, and Washington--twice, first as a young Third Secretary 1949-53 and then as Minister (Economic) 1967-72. He was Ambassador to the OECD 1972-75 and most recently Assistant Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs in Ottawa. He is married and has three children.

Significant Programs or Issues

You set tone for our good relations with Canada during Trudeau's visit to Washington in February. Consultations with Canada have since then been close, frequent, and active. Trudeau has instructed Towe to extend an official invitation for you to visit Canada at your earliest convenience. Towe has also been told to raise the matter of a U.S. gas pipeline through Canada. Parliament has been called into an unusual special session August 4-5 to debate the issue. The Canadian Government is intent on finding a way to cooperate in bringing Alaska gas to the U.S., and is expected to decide on August 6 whether it can make one of the two possible Canadian lines available. Both countries have recently named special negotiators for boundary/fisheries talks.

Talking Points

- Relationship with your Prime Minister valuable and pleasant. Pleased to accept in principle the invitation to visit Canada. Extend thanks for it to the Prime Minister.
- We appreciate the cooperative effort of the Government of Canada on the gas pipeline question given our time constraints. The final decision is still open, but we would prefer to have some options when making the decision.
- With the appointment of special negotiators for maritime boundary/fisheries, we hope these sensitive issues can be resolved in a mutually satisfactory manner.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

BRIEFING MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Peter Jay - Appointed Ambassador of the United Kingdom

Jay's appointment kicked up a brief political storm in Britain. Nepotism (Jay's wife Margaret is Callaghan's daughter), alleged Government smears on Jay's predecessor Peter Ramsbotham, and poor handling of the affair by 10 Downing Street gave the press and opposition a field day. Jay, 40, is an economist by training and served in the British Treasury and as Economic Editor of the Times until his appointment. His streak of intellectual arrogance will probably be well concealed here by his otherwise charming, informal manner. He and his wife know the U.S. well.

Significant Issues

The current excellent state of our bilateral relations began with Callaghan's visit in March and was enhanced by your trip to London for the Summit. Concorde remains the only nettlesome bilateral issue. Secretary Vance and Foreign Secretary Owen consulted on the problem of southern Africa during Owen's visit last week. We remain in close touch with both the British and the Guatemalans over the future of Belize. Otherwise, we are collaborating on a wide range of issues on which the British are generally supportive, including the Comprehensive Test Ban negotiations, MBFR, non-circumvention and cruise missiles in SALT, the Middle East, human rights, and CSCE.

Talking Points

- I think Jim Callaghan and I set the tone during his visit in March and my trip to Britain in May for a continuation of the traditionally close, and to my mind, invaluable Anglo-American relationship, which was enhanced in my recent meeting with your Foreign Secretary.
- We fully support your efforts on Rhodesia and completely understand the considerable difficulties you have encountered. I firmly believe that we must move to exhaust every conceivable approach towards a peaceful and just transition to an independent Zimbabwe.
- Concorde remains the only bilateral issue between us. I understand its importance to you and the French and have always approached this problem in the spirit of good relations between us.

Decision Process

I. Presentation of Canadian Ambassador's Credentials

On Friday morning, August 29, Canadian Ambassador - designate Peter Towe will present his credentials to you.

At a preliminary negotiating session with the Canadians earlier this week, I learned that Prime Minister Trudeau has instructed Ambassador Towe to ask you specifically whether you are seriously considering the no pipeline option. This inquiry is stimulated by a recent series of erroneous news stories in Canada and the U.S. that indicate we are leaning toward a no project decision.

In order to meet the September 1 schedule of the U.S., the Prime Minister has asked Parliament to return to Ottawa for two days of debate on the pipeline issue at the end of next week (August 4 and 5). He then will convene a meeting of the Cabinet on August 6 for the purpose of reaching a tentative decision on the NEB approval of a modified Alcan project. If tentative approval is granted by the Cabinet, a public announcement will be made in the form of formal instructions to negotiate with the U.S.

It would be embarrassing to the Prime Minister if he calls back Parliament and holds a Cabinet meeting resulting in instructions to negotiate only to find that we had decided to recommend no project. Thus the Ambassador's question.

In response, you might want to indicate that the Alaskan Natural Gas Transportation Act requires that the no pipeline option be reviewed, but that all of our analysis to date suggests that some transportation system would be preferable to none.*

- The Department of the Interior--Department of Transportation Report submitted to you on July 1 indicates that even under the worst-case cost overrun assumption, the net national economic benefit of building either the Alcan or El Paso system is positive.
- The National Energy Plan contemplates that increased availability of domestic gas at or below the world price of oil will tend to displace residential and industrial use of oil, thus reducing imports.

While our analysis will be subject to ongoing refinements, you can assure the Ambassador that we currently intend to make a decision on September 1, and that as of today it is unlikely that such a decision would be the no project option.

II. Further Steps in the Negotiating Process

On the question of ultimately choosing between the El Paso and Alcan projects (Arctic Gas will be announcing a merger with Alcan at the time you are meeting with the Ambassador), the following preliminary analysis may be helpful.

Prior to the NEB decision on the 4th of July, the relative cost of service of the proposed projects in constant 1975 dollars adjusted by DOI and DOT to likely cost-overrun projections were $1.26 per Mcf for El Paso and $1.09 per Mcf for Alcan. These were based upon capital requirements of $9.328 billion for El Paso and $9.920 billion for Alcan. It is clear that either of these projects, even allowing for further cost overruns and a generous $1.00 to $1.50 per Mcf wellhead price in Alaska, will deliver gas to American markets below the projected cost of supplemental supplies such as LNG or SNG, ($3.25 per Mcf to $4.00 per Mcf in constant 1975 dollars).

*Kitty Schirmer of Stu's staff concurs with this formulation. The "no pipeline" option is unlikely, but the President should not reject it absolutely at this point.

---Rick

The NEB decision ordered the following three changes in the Alcan proposal:

- A several hundred mile northerly rerouting of the pipeline from the original alignment adjacent to the Alcan Highway to an alignment through Dawson, bringing it closer to Canada's MacKenzie Delta gas.
- A $200 million socio-economic impact payment.
- A requirement that plans be developed within two years to build another line along the Dempster Highway from the MacKenzie Delta to Dawson to carry Canadian gas.

These changes add about $700 million (excluding the $1.5 billion leg from the MacKenzie Delta to Dawson) to the cost of the Alcan proposal and would reduce the fuel efficiency of the line from Dawson south when Canadian gas begins to flow. Our preliminary analysis indicates that these changes shift the cost of service numbers under the worst-case assumption regarding Canadian cost sharing from a clear advantage for Alcan ($1.09 per Mcf for Alcan versus $1.26 per Mcf for El Paso) to almost a dead heat, ($1.25 per Mcf for El Paso versus $1.26 per Mcf for Alcan). These figures are based upon DOI-DOT's cost overrun scenario which my staff believes overstates the expected Alcan costs. Nevertheless, these are public numbers from a report submitted to you which are appropriate to use in our discussion with the Canadians.

If there is a clear cost-of-service advantage to American consumers, the Canadian project appears preferable and justifiable because of:

- the tangible cost savings to American consumers over the life of the project.
- the higher percentage of input energy that can be delivered through an all-pipeline system.
- the opportunity it affords for obtaining access to increased volumes of Canadian gas.
- the direct delivery of gas to markets where it is needed.

- the greater degree of certainty associated with the proven pipeline technology versus LNG technology.
- the greater degree of flexibility it leaves us in developing future Alaska resources, given that only so much gas can be brought into the West Coast through LNG facilities.

On the other hand, if the two projects have the same cost of service and energy loss, the scales may well shift in the other direction because of a series of other subsidiary factors that tend to favor El Paso politically.

- With $2 billion in potential MARAD loans for the construction of the LNG tankers and $1 billion in State of Alaska debt guarantees, the El Paso project would be easier to finance than the Alcan project.
- Canadian corporations will control the Canadian portions of the Alcan line; the Canadian NEB will set tariffs and the provinces will establish taxes -- all beyond direct U.S. control.
- The $200 million socio-economic impact payment is a bad precedent.
- The El Paso project would mean more American jobs and goods.

In a preliminary negotiating session with high Canadian officials (including Ambassador Towe) this last week, we put forth this analysis. We further stated that if there is to be a joint project, the Canadians must modify the NEB decision and recommendations in a way that will:

- result in a cost of service and energy efficiency for the Alcan project that is clearly superior to the El Paso route.
- make the Alcan proposal easier to finance.

- recast the $200 million payment into a more acceptable form (e.g., impact assistance loan).

The Canadians appeared willing to consider our ideas for moving toward these goals. They currently are meeting with their ministers in Ottawa on these issues in preparation for next week's debate and Cabinet meeting.

It may be useful to send a high level signal just prior to the Cabinet meeting next weekend underscoring the message delivered to the Canadian negotiating team this week. Such a message might improve the chances for the Canadians issuing flexible negotiating instructions.

Unless you have any objections, I will communicate this message sometime next week to Alistair Gillespie, Canada's Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources.

You might want to indicate in a general way to Ambassador Towe that we have serious concerns about the NEB decision but are hopeful they can be worked out.

*No objection from Eizenstat's staff.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: PETER G. BOURNE.

P.B.

SUBJECT: AFGHANISTAN OPIUM PRODUCTION

As Mexican eradication programs are becoming more fruitful and interdiction activities in Burma and Thailand are putting severe pressure on opium traffickers, the narcotics situation in the South Asian countries of Afghanistan and Pakistan is worsening.

Poppy production in both countries was significantly increased this year, while demand reduction activities in Iran have intensified. The resulting increase of supply over regional demand has provided both Afghan and Pakistani traffickers with an opportunity to channel increasing volumes of narcotics to the West. Laboratory capabilities exist in the border region, which neither country controls, to produce counterfeit morphine sulfate tablets for the West German market. Political unrest in Pakistan has prevented the government from collecting licitly produced opium gum, which has subsequently found its way to the illicit market. Existing hashish trafficking routes from Afghanistan and Pakistan are currently available to the less bulky and more profitable narcotic products.

The current political situation in Pakistan does not lend itself to increased anti-narcotic efforts in that country, particularly since the opium region is one of the principal strongholds of the opposition PNA. The situation in Afghanistan, however, is vastly different.

President Daoud has firmly committed his government to eventual opium eradication and we have no reason to doubt his own personal commitment to that goal. The harsh fact, however, is that opium production has dramatically increased with no corresponding government action to counter it. There are many constraints which prevent the Afghans from acting precipitously against narcotics violators, not the least of which is lack of government control, and the social conditions which preclude the production of a less profitable crop. Another constraint is corruption which may reach to the highest levels of the government. Allegations have been made that the Minister of Justice has a large tract of land in poppy production. These allegations are being investigated and the results will be reported to you.

We have taken a number of steps over the last four months designed to cause the Government of Afghanistan to focus on this issue. Our goal is to prevent increased planting of the opium crop during September. To that end we have made demarches to the government through our Embassy, as well as separate visits and meetings with the Ministers of Planning, Foreign Affairs, Agriculture, State and Health. I additionally met with the Minister of Health during his recent Washington visit.

We have also caused the United Nations Fund for Drug Abuse Control to address President Daoud in the strongest terms and call his attention to the dramatic increase in opium production this year. The letter was rejected by Daoud and returned to the U.N. A similar letter was sent by the International Narcotics Control Board and no reply has been received.

Our efforts have resulted in the establishment of a joint U.S./U.N./Afghan Commission which held its first meeting today (Thursday) in Kabul. The results of that meeting are discouraging in that the Afghans have agreed to discuss only one part of the country which is a secondary production area, and have refused to discuss the problems in the major producing Provinces of Nangrahar and Konar which pose the greatest threat to the West.

We intend to call Ambassador Karim in to the State Department on Tuesday of next week to express our deep concerns, and plan a meeting between Secretary Vance and Minister In Charge of Foreign Affairs Wahid Abdullah during the upcoming U.N. General Assembly session. We will be meeting with the U.N. Narcotics Advisor to Afghanistan in Germany within the next three weeks and by that time should have an intelligence report on the corruption issue. A more comprehensive report including both short and long term recommendations will be available for you by August 20.

We have no indication that any significant quantity of Afghan opium is currently being transported to the U.S., but this region clearly represents the most significant threat to our ongoing program.

I realize that it's not customary to raise an issue of such substance during presentation of Ambassadorial credentials, but wanted you to be aware of this situation in order for you to express your deep concern if the opportunity should present itself.

Pat Moynihan called....is distressed and almost bitter about the articles (2 thus far) which have appeared in Newsweek and the Evans & Novak regarding comments by an unnamed White House source saying that the President doesn't like Moynihan. (He said he knows John Lindsey with Newsweek, who is a credible reporter...)

Stu thinks it would be helpful if you called Moynihan and let him know that you are taking steps to talk to the staff...that you don't know of anybody who could be saying these sorts of things....that that is not your feeling....and that you heard about how supportive he was today of you and your programs on the Today Show.

The Committee convened at 11:15 AM and adjourned at 10:05 PM.

The Committee heard a long list of witnesses, starting with the Chairman and Ranking Minority Member of each Standing Committee of the House which had input into the National Energy Act, and the Ad Hoc Committee on Energy.

Late in the evening the Committee began to deliberate on the merits of the arguments presented before them. Mr. Bolling offered a motion outlining the rules to be followed on the Floor, as well as a list of amendments which the Rules Committee would recommend as permissible for debate.

Mr. Bolling proposed a modified closed rule. This rule provided:

- a) Time for general debate - one legislative day;
- b) waiver to Points of Order against the consideration of the Bill, with specific references to rules of the House with which the Bill would normally have been in conflict;
- c) Control of debate time equally divided between Minority and Majority;
- d) Amendments would be considered under a 5 minute rule;
- e) The bill would be amended by Parts, rather than sections;

- f) Each part would be considered as having been read;
- g) pro forma amendments allowed.

Mr. Bolling then offered a list of amendments which could be considered on the Floor. The list which appears below is the amended list; that is, it does not contain amendments deleted by the Committee on Rules in its voting, but does contain additions which were accepted by the Committee. Each amendment is annotated to indicate whether it was in the original Bolling list or was an amendment by a Member to that list:

- a) (BOLLING) The amendments drawn and agreed to by the Ad Hoc Committee on Energy; they would be treated in block, with each piece considered individually;
- b) (BOLLING) An amendment, as that proposed by Mr. Brown of Ohio, on the deregulation of natural gas;
- c) (BOLLING) A plowback provision on the crude oil equalization tax, such as proposed by Mr. Jones and Ms. Schroeder;
- d) (BOLLING) Amending the rebate of the crude oil tax and substituting a temporary income tax cut, as proposed by Mr. Conable;
- e) (BOLLING) An amendment, such as proposed by Mr. Flowers to strike the Bill's provisions relating to application of anti-trust provisions for new utility facilities;
- f) (BOLLING) A substitute gasoline tax, proposed by Mr. Howard, which would make the tax 5¢, instead of 4¢, and would give 50% of the revenue to a highway trust fund, not applicable to interstate highways, and 50% to mass transit;
- g) (BOLLING) An amendment by Mr. Ford of Michigan to the Ad Hoc amendment put forward by Ms. Mikulski; the Ford amendment would apply Davis-Bacon labor law to the Mikulski plan;
- h) (BOLLING) An amendment by Messrs. Moss and Moffett relating to natural gas pricing;
- i) (BOLLING) An amendment by Messrs. Hannaford and Ketchum changing the effective date of the crude oil equalization tax;
- j) (BOLLING) An amendment by Mr. Waggoner putting the revenue from the crude oil tax into the social security fund rather than rebating it, except for the home heating oil rebates;
- k) (YOUNG) An amendment by Mr. Runnels easing the Bill's definition of stripper wells;
- l) (ANDERSON) An amendment by Mr. Horton to strike the federal vanpooling program from the bill;
- m) (BOLLING) An amendment in the form of a substitute bill, H.R. 8555, offered by Mr. Anderson.

Finally, the Bolling list would permit a motion to Recommit, With or Without Instructions.

The Bolling motion, as amended was approved by the Committee by voice vote at 10:05 PM, and the Committee adjourned.

There were other amendments offered by the various members of the Committee in response to the proposals put forward in the day's testimony, but they were all defeated, but for those reflected in the list on the previous page. There was one deletion from the original list offered by Bolling; that was an amendment which Mr. Vanik wished to offer which would limit the extension of the minimum tax treatment of intangible drilling costs to the end of 1978, rather than the permanent extension in the Bill as it now stands. That amendment was dropped from the list upon a successful motion to strike the same by Mr. Long.

The Committee met late into the evening, past Congress' adjournment for the day, following the House granting of the Committee unanimous consent request that it be allowed to file its report up until midnight, rather than keep the House in session all that time. The granting of that request came at 7:35 PM.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

Bert Lance

Jim McIntyre

SUBJECT:

Proposed 1978 budget amendment for foreign assistance --
Organization of American States ($2.5 million)

Attached for your approval is a proposed 1978 budget amendment in the amount of $2.5 million which would provide an additional United States contribution to the voluntary programs of the Organization of American States for cultural and educational activities.

On June 14, Secretary Vance indicated in a speech before the Organization of American States General Assembly in Grenada that the Administration would ask the Congress to approve a contribution of $500 thousand to the Organization's special account for culture and a further $2 million for other supporting programs. Similarly, your July 12 letter to Secretary-General Orfila indicated that you are seeking the $2.5 million from the Congress.

This request would increase outlays by $2.0 million in 1978 and $0.5 million in 1979.

RECOMMENDATION

I recommend that you promptly sign the letter transmitting the proposed amendment to the Senate, so it may be considered in the Foreign Assistance Appropriation Bill, awaiting action by that body.

Enclosure

NSC concurs.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: JOE CALIFANO (Dictated)

Rostenkowski has scheduled and then cancelled a mark-up on the hospital cost containment bill. Please ask him to reschedule that mark-up this week. If the bill is effective on January 1, we will save $492 million in fiscal 1978; $1.9 billion in fiscal 1979; and more thereafter.

Rostenkowski wants his man named HEW Regional Director in Chicago. I will negotiate that out with him.

Kennedy is marking up the hospital cost containment bill this morning.

If you call Paul Rogers today, I believe from my conversation with him yesterday that he, too, will mark up the cost containment bill after the August recess.
